If you are doing this craft with a group, precutting the strips of paper will make the craft go faster. Paste the figures into a text editor like Microsoft Word. Step 5: Cut Dolls Hold the folded strip firmly and cut carefully around the doll outline. Gather everything you need to do the project. Alternatively, use more than one sheet of paper and connect the figures with tape. Cut the figure out and unfold. This craft features bilateral symmetry—two halves that are mirror images of each other. Select the size that best fits your strips of paper after folding, and adjust as needed. You will get a chain of dolls holding hands. Do not cut along the folds. You can make variations such as paper figures that wear dresses women, look like teddy bears, or like ginger bread men. Read all of the directions. To have more dolls in your chain, use a larger sheet of paper and fold more pleats before cutting. Unfold the paper strip to reveal your chain of dolls.
